

Greenville County Bird Club Trip Report

---

Date: October 8, 2016

Location: Cottonwood Trail at the Edwin M. Griffin Nature Preserve

Leader: Jeff Click

A handful of intrepid birders braved the edge of Hurricane Matthew to look for migrants at the Cottonwood Trail in Spartanburg on Saturday, October 8. We turned up 37 species in challenging conditions. Our list of species is below.

Species List (37 Total)

Black Vulture	Brown-headed Nuthatch
Turkey Vulture	Carolina Wren
Cooper's Hawk	Ruby-crowned Kinglet
Red-shouldered Hawk	Eastern Bluebird
Red-tailed Hawk	Swainson's Thrush
Mourning Dove	Wood Thrush
Chimney Swift	Gray Catbird
Ruby-throated Hummingbird	Brown Thrasher
Red-bellied Woodpecker	Black-and-white Warbler
Downy Woodpecker	American Redstart
Northern Flicker	Cape May Warbler
Pileated Woodpecker	Chestnut-sided Warbler
Eastern Wood-Pewee	Eastern Towhee
Acadian Flycatcher	Scarlet Tanager
Eastern Phoebe	Northern Cardinal
Blue Jay	Blue Grosbeak
American Crow	Indigo Bunting
Carolina Chickadee	House Finch
Tufted Titmouse	