

Greenville County Bird Club Trip Report

Date: October 6, 2007

Location: Cottonwood Trail, Spartanburg County, SC

Comments: Submitted by Neil Owens, Trip Leader

We had a great outing this morning. A total of 17 birders (15 members and two guests - a Furman student and her dad) showed up for this new site for the GCBC. The weather turned out nice and the birds were plentiful. We had a total of 53 species which are listed below. We birded from 8:30 AM until 1:00 PM and covered around 4 miles. I want to thank everyone for coming over to Sparkle City. It was great meeting you and I look forward to seeing you for future outings.
