

Greenville County Bird Club Trip Report

Date: November 10, 2007

Location: Dobbins Farm area / Townville, SC

Comments: Submitted by Donnie Coody, President

Ten GCBC members and visitors, with Jeff Redmile as leader, were on the November 10 outing to the Dobbins Farm / Townville area in great fall weather.

The best birds of the day were two Snow Geese at one of Dobbins Farm's ponds, five tom Wild Turkeys less than 50 feet away, and a Loggerhead Shrike at Prater Farm.

We had a total of 55 birds either seen or heard. In addition, some small shorebirds were seen on some mudflats at Lake Hartwell, but were too far away for identification.

Good birding,
Donnie
