

Greenville County Bird Club Trip Report

Dates: October 10, 2009

Location: Cottonwood Trail, Spartanburg SC

Leader: David Kirk

Comments: Submitted by David Kirk:
Six club members (Evelyn Onofrio, Jane Kramer, Chip Gilbert, JB Hines, Jerry Johnson and David Kirk) showed up in spite of an ominous rain forecast and were rewarded with a very nice day of birding. After about an hour and a half past the appointed time we were still observing and even identifying most of the warblers in the treetops. {There was one "MYSTERY WARBLER"} . Reluctantly, we eventually had to call it a day, with 59 species.
